

Upcoming Event

Date: 14th October 2010

Venue: BNP Paribas Real Estate Offices, London

Recovery - what does it mean for the property market?

When will property come onto the market again and at what price? With threats of a 'double-dip' recession, commercial property failing to rise and government cuts still to come, is talk of a recovery premature?

Recovery Summit 2010 is a one day event bringing together property professionals to discuss current market conditions and plot future economic growth. What is the future of CMBS? Where to next for CVAs? How can you best choose your asset manager? Attend Recovery Summit 2010 and pose your questions to our expert speaker panel and discover opportunities for the future.

Guest Speaker

Matthew Grefsheim – Director of Special Servicing, Hatfield Philips

14:20 Asset Management for Recovery

Why attend?

- Hear more about the economic outlook and the impact on the UK property market
- Listen to the banks on what to expect next
- Obtain market analysis by region and sector
- Find out how this recession compares to previous downturns

For more information and registration: <http://www.propertyweek.com/recovery-conference-2010/home>

Organised by:

Hosted by and in association with:

Supported by:

Recovery Summit 2010 is:

